

From: jorjw@msn.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/28/02 1:22pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I think Microsoft is doing a fine job and should be exonerated. The competitors are envious and want the government to control the competition in their favor. They can't win people complain if they give their software away or price it too high. If there wasn't a market for it nobody would buy it. The only ones who seem to have a problem with them is their competitors. Leave them alone and let them keep innovating.